HEAD OF MANITOBA UNIVERSITY BOARD UNDER INDICTMENT

John A. Machray, K.C., Guardian of Trust Funds,
Arrested Following Investigation—Huge Sums
Missing From Endowment Accounts—Anglican
Diocesan Officers Examining Books

WINNIPEG, Aug. 25 (CP).—University of Manitoba's $1,600,000 endowment trust fund, tonight, had shrunk to a figure estimated to be less than $100,000. Its chief guardian lay seriously ill in bed with a theft charge against him, and officials of two other institutions started hurried examination into accounts said to be in a muddled condition.

The first charge against John A. Machray, K.C., sixty-seven-year-old chairman of the university's board of governors and honorary bursar, was laid today. It charged the prominent churchman—educationalist—barrister with theft of $47,451.37 of university funds.

$50,000 BAIL
So ill with stomach ulcer that he was unable to appear in Provincial Police Court, Machray was represented by counsel, who agreed to the request of John Allen, K.C., Deputy Attorney-General for Manitoba, that bail be fixed at $50,000. The case was remanded to September 1.

In the meantime more charges will be laid against Machray, who, as bursar and chairman of the board, had been in charge of the university's endowment since 1910. It was announced by the remainder of the board of governors today that exact losses to the endowment fund have not been determined.

OTHER HEAVY LOSSES
It was learned from an authoritative quarter, however, that the fund's depletion by thefts amounted to approximately $840,000. Other heavy losses were sustained through bad investments. The irregularities have taken place over a long period of years and continued until a recent date.

Officers of the Church of England, diocese of Rupert's Land, and of St. John's College, held meetings today following reports that there has also been serious impairment of trust funds of the two bodies. As chancellor of the diocese, Machray was in charge of the funds of both. A statement is expected to be made within a few days by church heads.

FIND DYNAMITE UNDER TRESTLE

Transient Foreigner Claims
Attempt Made to Wreck
Train—Police Doubtful

TORONTO, Aug. 25 (CP).—Nineteen sticks of dynamite, equipped with detonators, were found beneath the Canadian National Railway bridge at Oakville, near here, early today. The dynamite was rigged to explode when a train crossed the contacts of the automatic signal system at that place. A tramp sleeping beneath the bridge, gave the alarm after he had frightened two men away.

TELLS STRANGE STORY

OAKVILLE, Ont., Aug. 25 (CP).—Police are beginning to doubt the story of Mike Scherit, jobless Czechoslovakian, who reported today he had discovered nineteen sticks of dynamite wired and set under a bridge near here, ready for the coming of a New York-Toronto flyer. Scherit carried the dynamite to the Canadian National Railway station here and dumped nineteen sticks before a startled night telegraph operator, telling him he had watched two men planting it between the tracks on the bridge. When police took him to the spot, he broke down and wept under their questioning. They detected several inconsistencies in his narrative.

BOYCOTT CAMPAIGN TAKES VIOLENT TURN

HANKOW, China, Aug. 2 (AP).—The "Blood and Iron" Society's anti-Japanese boycott campaign took a violent turn today when a group hurled four bombs into a Chinese store accused of handling Japanese goods. The store was wrecked and two clerks injured.

VON GRONAU AT DUTCH HARBOR

DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska, Aug. 25.—Captain Wolfgang von Gronau, German flyer, landed his huge flying boat, in which he and three companions are making a world flight, on the waters off-shore here at 8:30 p.m. (P.S.T.), completing the hop from Cordova, which they left at 11:15 o'clock this morning.

The German quartette maintained their average speed of a hundred miles an hour on the 900-mile flight, which took them along the Alaska peninsula and other scattered islands of the northern ocean.

End of Monarchist Uprising in Spain

ONE of the first pictures from Madrid, Spain, since the breaking out of the monarchist revolt, leaders of which attempted to overthrow the Spanish Republic. This photo shows some of the monarchist leaders being taken to military prison after their coup was thwarted by the militia. Yesterday, General Jose Sanjurjo was sentenced to death for leading the rebellion. Later, President Zamora signed a commutation decree, changing the sentence to life imprisonment.

Blockade to Tie Up Farm Produce Becomes Serious

Angry Farmers Threaten to Storm Jail, Forcing
Release of Pickets—Deputy Fatally Wounded
When Own Gun Discharges—Some Posts
Being Abandoned, Opposition States

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Aug. 25.—When 1,000 angry farmers threatened to storm the jail, county officials tonight released, on bonds, fifty-five men who had picketed nearby highways in an effort to blockade the Omaha market.

Premier Bennett Leaves for West

OTTAWA, Aug. 25 (CP).—Prime Minister R. B. Bennett left Ottawa tonight for the west, after a day and a night in the city. He was accompanied by a large party, including several members of the cabinet. The premier is expected to arrive in Calgary tomorrow.

AVIATRIX SETS FLIGHT RECORD

NEWARK, N.J., Aug. 25.—Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam landed at Newark airport at 10:28, E.S.T., today, completing the first transcontinental nonstop flight by a woman. She made the flight from Los Angeles, in nineteen hours and two minutes.

Mystery Hangs Over Doukhor Movement As Officers Confer

Visit of Leaders of Sect to Imprisoned Chieftain
at Prince Albert Jail Brings Rumors of Impending Break in Colony

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Aug. 25 (CP).—While high executives of the Doukhor movement were conferring with their jailed leader, Peter Verigin, in the Saskatchewan jail today, eight members of the Sons of Freedom sect who, after parading about in the nude at Canora, Sask., were given penitentiary sentences ranging from two and one-half to three years, were admitted to the Dominion Government penal institution, here.

CROP ESTIMATED AT NEAR RECORD

Western Canada to Yield Second Largest Harvest in History,
Grain Company Reports

WINNIPEG, Aug. 25.—Western Canada will this year garner 180,000,000 bushels of wheat more than it did last year, according to estimates of the Seale Grain Company, released today. They place this year's Western crop at 450,000,000 bushels, the second largest crop in the history of the Prairie Provinces.

Based on last-minute figures from hundreds of correspondents in Western Canada and on Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports on acreage, frost and eat damage as well as the yield by acre at eighteen bushels for Manitoba, fifteen for Saskatchewan and twenty-two for Alberta.

Fifty per cent of the crop has been cut, but nearly half of it outside Manitoba still faces hazards of frost, rust, hail and rain.

B.C. LUMBER AND SALMON HELPED BY PREFERENCES

C.I.F. Method of Computing Protection Will Give Products of Province Advantage in United Kingdom—Prospects for New Markets
Are Bright—Coast May Have Smelter

Dominion Moves to Prevent Importation of Cheap Fish

BRITISH Columbia's position in respect of lumber and canned salmon exports to the United Kingdom, under the provisions of the recent treaty negotiated at Ottawa, will be materially better than was estimated when the statement of preferences was released on Monday, according to advices received by The Colonist last night, from Ottawa.

Interpretation of the 10 per cent preferences on these two British Columbia commodities indicates that costs will be computed on a c.i.f. basis instead of f.o.b. This means that the protection to lumber in Britain will, with exchange, exceed 20 per cent, and will permit of Coast mills meeting the competition of Baltic producers of timber.

When the details of the treaty arrangements were made known on Monday, it was revealed that Canadian lumber would have a 10 per cent preference only. This, it was assumed, would be estimated on costs at the point of production and shipment, and would not give adequate protection against timber from Latvia, Norway, Sweden, Poland and Russia. It now appears, however, that the basis of estimating the costs will include freight, insurance and other charges, or the laid down cost in England. This method of computation more than doubles the preference, and will enable British Columbia producers to meet competition.

Taken in conjunction with the Lord Hailsham formula incorporated in the treaty for the controlling of state-assisted dumping into the British market, and which may be invoked to prevent Russia's laudering timber prices, the 10 per cent preference on a c.i.f. basis will give an opportunity to British Columbia producers to gain a substantial portion of the British market.

Exhibition Attendance Maintained

A total of 4,713 visitors, paid admission during the fourth day of the Provincial Exhibition at the Willows, according to figures given out by the association last night. It was the highest attendance since 1930, the record year for attendance, 5,100 persons paid admission on the corresponding day.

ROB BANK AND ESCAPE AFTER PISTOL BATTLE

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Six men escaped from a robbery of the Marlboro branch of the Irving Trust Company in Brooklyn today after a pistol battle with a bank policeman. One of the men was believed to have been wounded. Their loot was estimated to be between $15,000 and $20,000.

Populace of Spain Violently Divided Over Rebel's Fate

Gen. Sanjurjo's Death Sentence Commuted to Life
Imprisonment—Fist Fights Follow Announcement in Cabinet—New Uprising Feared

MADRID, Aug. 25 (AP).—General Jose Sanjurjo, prominent member of the Royalist regime, was convicted of rebellion against the young republic, today, and sentenced to death. His sentence was then commuted to life imprisonment.

WEATHER HOLDS FAMILY FLYERS

Hutchinsons' Delay Flight From Port Menier, on Anticosti Island,
Until Conditions Improve

PORT MENIER, Anticosti Island, Que., Aug. 25 (CP).—The "Flying Hutchinsons" are enjoying the hospitality of this little settlement for another night.

Adverse weather reports decided George Hutchinson to defer until tomorrow, or later, his hop-off for the Labrador Coast, next stopping place on his leisurely, "careful, cautious" flight from New York to Scotland.

Hutchinson, his wife and two little daughters, with a pilot, navigator, mechanic and cameraman, arrived here yesterday from Saint John, N.B., having flown to that point on the previous day from Montreal.

They intend to touch at Greenland, Iceland and the Faroe Islands before spending a flying holiday in Europe.

BAD WEATHER IS DELAYING FLIGHT

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Warned of bad weather on the Atlantic, Capt. James A. Molison said today there was only "slight possibility" he might take off for Saint John, N.B., at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Dr. James H. Kimball, weather expert, told the flyer conditions over the entire ocean are "very bad."

Molison plans to fly first to Saint John, and then continue to Harbor Grace to refuel before taking off on his return flight to England.

CALE PROVIDES ENTERTAINMENT

Steals the Spotlight in Horse Show Programme at Willows

Its red prize-winner's ribbon rakishly askew, its big eyes luminous with the spirit of fun, a white calf of tender age broke away from its dam when she entered the ring to take her place in the prize cattle parade at the Horse Show Pavilion at the Willows last evening, and provided several minutes' hilarious entertainment for the spectators. With innocent gaiety, full of the zest of life, and quite oblivious of the heavy dignity of the occasion, it skipped hither and thither, kicking its heels blithely in the faces of majestic bulls and stately bovines.

PLENTY OF DIVERSION

Between the arranged and the unexpected incidents the programme again offered diversions a-plenty. H.R.H. the Prince of Wales' magnificent 2,500-lb. shorthorn from the E.P. Ranch at High River, Alberta, led the prize cattle procession which entered the ring at 8 o'clock. Behind this handsome animal came more than two hundred picked cattle, the very cream of Western Canada's product.

Beautifully groomed and moving with dignified rhythm, they formed an asymmetrical group, which included representatives of some of the best-known herds: Charles Turner's Herefords from Kildare, B.C.; black Aberdeen-Angus from A. G. Ward's ranch in Alberta; some of the prize-winners from the Colony farm (Clydesdales, Escondido, and other Holstein herds); the C.P.R. herd, Rapera, E. B. Paul & Sons (Chilliwack), and Ralph Russell's Cadboro Bay. Jerseys were generously represented by beautiful specimens from H. E. Burbridge's "Babacombe" farm at East Saanich; B. H. Bull & Sons' (Saanich) farm; Cooper's at Halfway, Vancouver; Islander, Walley's Cobble Hill ranch, and E. A. Dumville's ranch at Sardis, B.C. Among the fine prize-winning shorthorns were several from James Turner's at Cadboro Bay.

UNCHANGING COIFFURE
Ladies may change the style of dressing the hair, but draft horses on parade continue, in the tradition of innumerable decades, to have their manes braided into stiff little ornaments tipped with artificial roses. Night after night the beautiful Clydesdales and Percherons competing for the draft horse events appear faultlessly and effectively coiffed in this manner. The dressing of the tail varies slightly; some are braided, some are rolled with ribbon, some are flowing free. The accoutrements are magnificent, and the difficulty in coming to a decision. Eventually R. J. Dill's (Vancouver) team of six well-matched Clydesdales was awarded the first prize of $50. Bygones (Albany, Oregon) won the $30 second prize, and R.

PLACER MINERS AT ROCK CREEK BUSY; RETURNS ARE GOOD

GREENWOOD, Aug. 25.—Rock Creek, fifteen miles from here, which years ago yielded considerable placer gold, is again the scene of mining activity, and between twenty-five and thirty outfits are operating along the old channel as far as Boundary Creek.

One small group of miners, using a fire hose and a small automobile engine attached to a pump, have been washing down at the rate of $40 to $60 a day. Prospectors believe they have discovered the old channel and that they will be able to follow it a long way before exhausting its richness.

TO FLY HIGH FOR ECLIPSE PICTURES
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—From an airplane four and a half miles above the earth three men plan to make pictures of the solar eclipse next Wednesday for the Sproul Observatory of Swarthmore College. The pictures will be taken over Debby, Vt.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—Australia's world champion cricket team defeated the Hollywood Cricket Club today, 200 for five wickets to 99 for seventeen wickets.

ANOTHER BIG DAY AT FAIR
Judges who travel all over the province to give awards to the best in fair exhibits say that the Victoria exhibition equals any to be found in the Dominion. As an indication of the high class of livestock in the cattle barns judges yesterday were called to rejudge a number of the winners of the class.

AWARD IS STANDARD
Exhibitors in other parts of the province realize that only the best is exhibited in Victoria, and a ribbon from the Victoria exhibition is a prize of value. This not only applies to the livestock sections, but in the sections devoted to agriculture, poultry and pet stock and horticulture where first prize tickets carry with them the standard of quality. There are many interesting things to be seen at the fair, and for the education for the children and for the adult and, in many cases, there is a profitable connection made between business men and consumers through the "shop window" method of displaying manufactured articles. All judging has been completed and those who were not able to see the results earlier in the week will have an opportunity now of seeing all the winning entries. Only two days left—today and tomorrow.

IS LAID AT REST
The funeral of Theodore Anderson, who passed away August 20, was held on Wednesday afternoon in the presence of a large number of friends. Dr. Clem Davies conducted the service, during which the hymns "Abide With Me," "Lead, Kindly Light" were rendered. The remains were laid at rest in Royal Oak Burial Park, with the following pallbearers: John Johnson, R. Christianson, A. Dunkenson, A. Larson, John France and A. Sadler.

CALL TO HER REST
There passed away on Wednesday, at 1980 Boucher Street, Alice MacKinlay, wife of George H. MacKinlay, formerly of Halifax and Edmonton, and resident of Victoria for the past six years. Mrs. MacKinlay is mourned by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. A. G. W. Bentley, of Westlock, Alta., and four grandchildren; one sister and three brothers in Nova Scotia, and a sister, Mrs. A. deWolf Moore, of this city.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY
The funeral service for Riccardo Bianco took place yesterday, the cortege leaving Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, proceeding to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where Mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. Father Gaudet. The service was largely attended and many beautiful floral offerings were received. Interment was made at Ross Bay Cemetery, the following acting as pallbearers: G. A. Townsend, D. Casillo, M. Moras, A. Marino, C. H. Mercer and G. Nott.

Makes Dash Through Rain

THE weather is no respecter of persons, so the Prince of Wales had to run for it when he arrived at St. Margaret's Church, London, in a downpour of rain, to attend a wedding. He was caught in this unconventional attitude as, clutching his hat, he dashed from his car to the church door.

In Great Britain to promote British goods, that by including freight, insurance and other handling charges in the costs for preference calculations should be used. This will be able to regain much of their former standing. Backed by a well-organized campaign to acquaint British buyers with the high qualities of British Columbia woods in comparison with the Baltic timbers that have been used for so many years in Britain, the results should be greatly to the advantage of British Columbia.

NEW MARKETS
British Columbia mills will also find advantages, as a result of Canada's new trade arrangements, in the markets of other Dominions and in the various colonies of the Empire. The Dominion Government, in seeking to assist the British Columbia lumber industry, recently granted this subsidy to the Coughlan fleet of lumber carriers, which in granting this subsidy it was stipulated that British Columbia coal be used. This will, it is estimated, stimulate demand for coal by $400,000 annually.

MILK AND EGGS
British Columbia several years ago entered the London market with eggs. Preferences are offered that will permit of Empire countries gaining advantages not only in eggs, but in milk and other farm products. Condensed milk is another British Columbia product that is offered encouragement in United Kingdom.

MUST BE INSPECTED
The Canadian Government has also made a very definite move to control the importation of cheap canned salmon into the Dominion. An order-in-council was passed at Ottawa this week stipulating that all canned salmon imported into Canada in future must undergo an inspection similar to that required of salmon packed in British Columbia.

As there is an inspection board in this province, the new order provides that salmon may only be imported into the Dominion through British Columbia ports. The British preferences granted to Canada on boxed and canned apples will prove to be a great boon to British Columbia. In the past all canned apples were imported from Washington and Oregon, commanded a much larger share of the apple market than did British Columbia. Given a preference of forty cents a box, this competition may now be overcome, and British Columbia should be able to market its entire export crop through the arrangements negotiated by the Canadian Government with the Imperial Economic Conference.

Another preference which was secured by the Dominion Government in its negotiations with the British Government is expected to be of great importance to the Coast. This is that of four cents a pound on copper. This, it is hinted in Ottawa, may lead to the establishment of a smelter and refinery on the Coast.

It is known that Hon. H. H. Stevens has been a constant advocate for many years of such a processing plant on the Coast, and that the idea has been carefully studied in the past at his suggestion, as well as that of the Provincial Government. Great Britain imports 150,000 tons of refined copper annually, being a short while later the second largest market in the world. With a preference of four cents a pound, which will effectively shut out foreign copper from United Kingdom, British Columbia would be assured a substantial portion of this large trade if its copper was smelted and refined on the Coast. For thirty years the bulk of Coast copper ores has been going to Tacoma for treatment. It is expected that with an assured market in United Kingdom, a huge smelter and refinery will be constructed on the Coast.

British Columbia is one of the world's largest producers of lead and zinc. These metals will have a 10 per cent preference in United Kingdom, and this province may be expected to secure a substantial benefit as a result.

RECEPTION PLAN READY

Public Will Have Opportunity to Welcome Governor-General on Tuesday

Plans for the reception of the Governor-General and viceregal party on arrival were announced yesterday by Hon. S. L. Howe, Provincial Secretary. The reception will be held at the Legislative Chamber at 9:30 o'clock on the evening of their arrival on Tuesday next. The following official statement covering the plans was issued:

"No special invitations have been issued for the reception to Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Bessborough at the Parliament Buildings on Tuesday, August 30, at 9:30 p.m., as it is desired to give the public generally an opportunity of meeting the Governor-General of Canada and the Countess of Bessborough."

WILL KEEP MOVING
"Cars will not be allowed on the main driveway, and guests will enter the buildings by the east door, near the Museum, proceeding to the lower rotunda, where coats, etc., may be checked, then up the stairs through the picture gallery, and thence into the Legislative Chamber by the northeast door."

"After presentation to Their Excellencies, guests will pass out of the chamber through the northeast door, thence down the stairs to the lower rotunda, where coats may be reclaimed, leaving the buildings by the west door towards Menzies Street."

Ministry, announced to a Chamber of Deputies tense with waiting, that the Government had decided to petition President Alcala Zamora to commute General Sanjurjo's penalty to life behind the bars. The President signed the commutation papers a short while later.

PANDEMONIUM REIGNS
Immediately on his announcement pandemonium reigned in the Chamber. Waves of applause rolled from the rightist sections. Shouts of resentment came from the Radical groups. A number of impatient flat fights broke out among the Deputies. Police took a firmer hold on their weapons.

The Radical Socialists, strongest opponents of the Government, announced they would take prompt action against the Cabinet's decision and trooped out to hold a meeting. Their representatives in the Cabinet, Minister of Justice Albornoz and Minister of Agriculture Domingo, were reported ready to resign.

Manifestations against the clemency edict were held in several parts of the city. Troops surrounding the military prison in which the defendants were confined dispersed several groups of agitators.

MYSTERY HANGS OVER DOUKHOBOR MOVEMENT AS OFFICERS CONFER
LEADERS ARE SILENT
While rumors are an announcement of an important and startling nature is impending, are floating about the city, the Doukhobor officials decline to state why they are here, other than to confer with Verigin on business matters of the community. Reblin refuses to discuss his resignation. When approached, he remarked, "I'm satisfied in minding my own business." Shubin verified the correctness of the statement that his resignation and that of Reblin had been submitted through personal considerations, but that acceptance had been refused.

RELATIONS FRIENDLY
An air of hysteria hangs over the frequent conferences at the hotel headquarters and the frequent trips to the jail where Verigin is sweeping and cleaning out cells and devoting the few minutes, during which he is able to see visitors to discuss the business of the gigantic communal organization he heads. To the casual observer relations between the executives visiting here appear to be friendly.

LUMBER MILL BURNS
PRINCE GEORGE, Aug. 25.—A mill, valued at $50,000, and 5,000,000 feet of lumber of the Red Mountain Lumber Company, at Penny, were destroyed by fire yesterday. It was learned here today. Insurance covers 60 per cent of the loss.

Ten Are Injured In Detroit Riot

DETROIT, Aug. 25.—Trouble which had been brewing for a week over an attempted eviction flared into a clash between 1,000 civilians and 300 policemen today, with injuries to two patrolmen and eight rioters.

Twenty-one of the civilians were police prisoners tonight in addition to their eight injured, who were ordered held for investigation. Police said the prisoners included several who had participated in previous eviction disorders.

FILM PLANS FORWARDED

Reginald Denny Signs Up
for "The Crimson West," Directors Announce

Philip O'Seffern, director of the Commonwealth Productions, Ltd., arrived from California yesterday, and in company with Kenneth Bishop, also a director of the company, will visit the Industrial Building at the Willows to decide upon the acoustic treatment to be given the interior preparatory to undertaking the first production.

Mr. Bishop stated that Reginald Denny had been secured to take the leading role and that Evelyn Brent, another British-born motion picture star, probably would take the feminine lead.

First shots of "The Crimson West" will be taken in Chemainus mill, while the studio is being prepared in Victoria. By the time the company has finished with the first set, the Industrial Building will be ready to handle all studio work. Delivery of the film will be made in London by December 1, Mr. Bishop stated.

The story contains many logging camp scenes and a championship bout and, as a prize fighter, Reginald Denny should find this role particularly adapted to him. He has been shown in prize fight pictures in the past, so his vehicle in this film should be a good one.

Mr. Bishop stated that the first picture would require a large number of extras and minor leads and

VETERANS PLAN BIG RECEPTION

District Council of Legion
Announces Intention to Entertain Governor-General

Final arrangements were made last evening at the general meeting of the district council of the Canadian Legion for the reception of His Excellency the Governor-General.

It was announced that an "at home" would be held in the Rotary Club on September 6, commencing at 7 o'clock.

According to the present arrangements, the various branches will "fall in" in given order and will parade the Naval Veterans' Branch, having the premier place in respect to their being members of the senior service.

During the function the presidents of the various units will be presented to His Excellency.

The following branches will be represented: Naval Veterans' T.V.A., North Saanich, Sooke, Britannia, Pro Patria and Prince Edward. It is fully expected that at least 500 members will attend.

ROTARY DEMANDS ARE EXPLAINED

W. McGilchrist, District Governor,
Addresses Local Club at Luncheon Meeting

The duties of members of the Rotary clubs was the subject upon which William McGilchrist, of Salem, Ore., district governor of the organization, addressed the local body at yesterday's luncheon meeting. The speaker alluded to the international assembly, which was held in Victoria in June, and stressed the inspiration which it had been to all members of Rotary.

He pointed out that the district governor was a connecting link between the local clubs and the international body. While he was nominated by the district club, his appointment was made by the assembly of all the clubs in the international body, which made the position therefore a connecting link with the broader organization.

SERVICE IS KEYNOTE

Service, he said, is the underlying principle that is expected of all members. The aims and objects of the organization set out four avenues through which service could be manifested. The first of these was through service in the club. There followed after this vocational service, under which it was expected that the representative of any calling who was a member of Rotary, should radiate an influence to all connected with that vocation.

Continuing the work, there was the community service to be given, and the speaker held out the idea that there were great avenues in this line in Victoria. In this connection he told of the good work done by the Prince Rupert Club.

In New Westminster the club had done a splendid work in seeing that a large number of underprivileged children were given the opportunity of getting an outing. Boundary Bay, thus making for the improving of the citizenship.

OFFERS SUGGESTION

He suggested that Victoria should reach out in some line of endeavor which would make for the building up of greater interest in the organization.

The fourth division was that of international service, and he felt that Victoria was well situated, as she was really a sort of international city. He advised getting in contact with foreign countries and thus increasing international interest.

The governor was thanked by Captain George McGregor, the president, on behalf of the local club. Last evening Mr. McGilchrist held a club assembly in the Empress Hotel for the officers and members of the local club.

BURGLARY IN NANAIMO

NANAIMO, Aug. 25.—Entering the building by the rear of the premises, burglars some time during the early hours of yesterday morning stole $10 from the till of Boot's Tire & Gasoline Station, on the corner of Grace and Nicol Streets. Up to the present the police have no clues.

WHAT CAUSES BLOOD PRESSURE?
One of the main causes of blood pressure is acidosis—which results from eating excessively of acid-forming foods such as refined grain foods, flesh foods, fats and sugars. To prevent, eat alkali-forming foods, such as steamed vegetables, fruits, milk, almonds, salads, eggs, yolks and Roman Meal.

At 50 my own pressure was 215 and my heart threatened to stop each week. By fresh air, exercising in the sun, eating fruits, etc., and Roman Meal, my pressure at 74 is 130. I can run five miles and work 40 hours a week without tiring.

And do not think that you can become careless of your diet in Summer. To withstand the heat—to store up resistance for Winter—keep your blood normally alkaline. Eat fruits, vegetables, etc., and stick to your Roman Meal.

Write for free booklet, "HOW TO KEEP WELL," and other literature, also sample of Roman Meal and Kofy-Sub, the alkaline beverage, to Robert G. Jackson, M.D., 315 Vine Avenue, Toronto 8, Ontario. (Adv.)

THE FIRST CONTRIBUTION

This is the anniversary of the departure of Victoria's "first contribution" to the First Contingent of Canada's Expeditionary Force in the Great War. On August 26, 1914, a brief three weeks after war had been declared, those of our local militiamen who were best equipped set sail
from here to Vancouver on their way to Valcar-
ter. General Sir Arthur Currie, or Colonel Currie as he was known at that time, left a little previously. The local draft numbered 68 officers, non-commissioned officers and men. Those who recall the departure eighteen years ago will remember how it was the first of many such departures in which in some cases whole battalions took part. The "first contribution" was drawn from veterans of the Fifth Regiment, C.G.A.

There is no section of Canada which has as proud and enviable a reputation of rendering assistance in the early days of the war and throughout that struggle as Vancouver Island. There were some settlements on the Island practically denuded of able-bodied men. Victoria sent what in relation to cities of its size, must have been more than its proportionate quota. The response was a magnificent one, and the whole-hearted enthusiasm of our people in their efforts to do everything possible to assist was apparent from the beginning. One evidence of that was the ability to dispatch a "first contribution" of officers and men who were not regulars at such an early period in the war as August 26, 1914.

The Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, whose motto is that of keeping one hand on the traditions of the past, annually commemorates the departure of the first contribution. It is a matter of historical significance which should be incorporated in the teaching in our public schools, for there are few events in the annals of time which have had deeper imprints on the progress of the human race than the Great War. The era has not yet come to assess its ultimate significance. What is exceedingly regrettable is that there is a tendency in educational relationships with the resistance generation to ignore its lessons and gloss over the importance of a succession of catastrophic
events which made history and opened up whole chapters of experience which deeply moved
human feelings, and affected, in an unparalleled
way, the trend of political and economic happenings. There is hardly a city or hamlet throughout the Empire that has not its own record of participation in connection with the struggle. It is the opening chapter in this book of remembrance that Victoria recalls today.

RE-ORIENTATION OF EDUCATION

Education is recognized as the most potent force in the world today. This accounts for its rising cost. A reaction, however, has set in against the taxation that has become necessary
because of public clamor for increased educational facilities. A feature of that reaction is a growing belief that, because of economic conditions, education is far from being all-sufficient
in helping to solve the problems of the time.
This aspect of educational advances is dealt with in a recent issue of The New Era. That publication says that "we have raised mass production to a fine art in industry. In the name of all that is human, let us call a halt before we perfect the same process in education." It admits that there is an irreducible minimum which every child must know if he is to take his normal
place in the world. He must be able to read intelligently, so that reading is really an instrument for the acquiring of such book-learning as he needs. He must be able to work out rapidly and effortlessly such "sums" as occur in ordinary life. He must be able to write legibly or use a typewriter proficiently. He must be able to express himself clearly in his own language by word of mouth and on paper. This is the minimum of "private aptitudes."

Then The New Era goes on to ask if the thoughtful person is satisfied with the modern curriculum. It wants to know if the child is content to struggle with present-day examinations, "to the exclusion of his interests in machinery or wireless, or his special aptitudes in music, drawing, drama or craftsmanship. Is the parent content to see his child so run into the common mould with "much of his time and special talents wasted?" The paper asks if the teacher is satisfied that he can help his pupils to develop their fullest powers, "while he is obliged to cram them with facts at such a pace." Is the employer satisfied with the standard of efficiency and adaptability produced by current methods of education? If parent, teacher, child and employer are dissatisfied then the ratepayer
can hardly fail to be girded at being asked to finance
so costly and unprofitable an undertaking.
The New Era is of opinion that, after the "private aptitudes" have been catered to, "further activities may be safely left to the child's own choosing. There should be no arbitrary rulings about subject-matter. Classes may be for an individual child an avenue into a rich field of interest. To another they may be but the dull learning of the minimum amount required to pass a certain examination." Then, as regards his social aptitudes, "the child should be carefully trained, from a very early age, to cooperate with his fellows. He should learn how to choose his leaders thoughtfully, not merely because they are popular but because they are the best people for the work at hand."

It is further suggested that alongside of practical training in citizenship, "the school should provide its older pupils with a course covering
the field generally known under the vague heading of social studies. This we consider essential,
as we see in the school a microcosm of the world,
in which world-citizens are made or marred."
The course suggested in the latter respect is one giving an adequate idea of various systems of government and of economic theory and the encouragement of discussion on such matters. In effect The New Era wants the re-orientation of education towards the special needs of the child and his growth.

BRITAIN'S FINANCIAL RECOVERY

Whatever efforts have been made by the United States and France to attempt to dictate events governing the course of international finance, by hoarding gold supplies, have proved futile and have reacted adversely on the fortunes of those countries. In the meantime, for one reason because of the attitude of France and the United States, Britain has been consistently regaining her financial lead. This aspect of the trend of financial affairs is dealt with by Dr.
Paul Einzig, foreign editor of The Financial News
and of The Banker in his book, "Finance and Politics," just published.

Dr. Einzig points out that confidence has been restored in sterling and the funds withdrawn from London during the panic of 1931 are gradually being returned there. What is happening, says Dr. Einzig, will enable the London market "to assist other countries, in co-operation with Paris, if possible, independently of her, if necessary, and even against her, if inevitable."
In effect London's position goes on being strengthened. Dr. Einzig says that well-informed people in France see the financial sun of her dictatorship setting. While a brief few months ago suggestions for financial co-operation and pooling resources for assistance in countries in distress were scorned in Paris, now the watchword there is co-operation. He continues: "Not so long ago it was the custom to denounce the movement for co-operation initiated by Great Britain as an attempt to induce other countries to serve British interests. Today co-operation is advocated in Paris as the only means of averting world disaster." This is an indication that France realizes its financial power is failing, and that the impetus to what must be done is likely to come from Britain in the future. There has been nothing more remarkable in all financial history that the manner in which Britain has recovered from what seemed an impasse less than twelve months ago.

Dr. John H. Finlay, editor of The New York Times, is not numbered among the Americans who believe that the war debts should be paid to the uttermost cent. When asked if in his opinion such a course of action should be pursued upon by Americans, he said: "Of course not. I believe the tide of public opinion is setting in that direction. It's hard to say anything original in connection with the business—
but my contribution would be to say that there ought to be less talk about what Britain owes us, and a good deal more about what we owe to Britain in the whole war business. I do not need to elaborate that moral obligation, but that it exists all discerning Americans must admit."

PUZZLE

Maybe there is no day and night,
But only when we think it's day.
It's really night's gay cloak we see
Behind it as it rides away.
Or else, when we think night has come,
It is not night at all, we find.
But day going round shod down the world,
Its spangled cloak ahead behind.
And when dawn bursts upon the East,
Whither really happens might well be,
Night's riding back, or, if it's day,
He's going, as the case may be.
—Sherry King, in The Chicago Tribune.

POWER OF MUSIC

"Music can lift us to heights far above this earthly sphere," said the Duchess of Atholl in a recent speech. "Music lifts the human soul and reach out to something infinitely greater than what we are accustomed to see and hear around us. It seems to me that it is of great value in these days of materialism and agnosticism. You hear a boy whistling in the street who knows there is not much
the matter with him," said the Duchess. "Singing makes you good-tempered. It is difficult, if not impossible, to sing when you are angry. Bach's music reaches to me like an ideal debating society where everyone is good-mannered in discussion, everyone
gets a fair hearing and a conclusion is reached."

If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them.—Thoreau.

There is this of good in real evils, they deliver us
while they last from the petty despotism of all that were imaginary.—Colton.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.
To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heaven.
—Ecclesiastes.

As the Walrus said, "the time has come to talk of other things." We in this part of the world have been talking a great deal lately about the Imperial Conference and very little about anything else, and what we have been talking about also has been the subject of almost unceasing conversation. Today let us change the subject and discuss the fair. You remember the rollicking song inviting everybody to come to the fair and enjoy the fun and frolic to be found there. We expect the fair of the song was the annual fair, that it was a village or a town fair, and that it was a very important event in the history of the community.

The reason why the annual fair was a very important event in the history
of the community was that the people who went to it went to enjoy it. Opportunities for enjoyment were rare in the days when the fair was an institution to be looked forward to as a period of relaxation from toil, as a gap in the journey of lives which were too
often dreary and drab and cold outside little hope of opportunities for better and brighter things. So the annual fair was not regarded as an opportunity for improving the mind,
but as an occasion for relieving the mind from worries about matters
which in their essence were really trivial and petty.

Well, we have gone to the fair,
and we went there in the spirit of the people who were attracted to the annual village fair. We went there to enjoy ourselves, not to increase the fund of our information
about cattle and horses and machines, although those things in themselves are interesting to many people. We went there to look at the people who were there and make mental notes about the particular manner in which the people enjoyed themselves. If you are of mature years, there is only one manner in which you really can enjoy yourself at a fair or anywhere else for that matter. You must go as a child, and make up your minds that most of the things you are going to see are new; that the attractions provided are such as no
one ever saw before or had opportunity to enjoy before. If you go to the fair in the proper receptive
state of mind, you will enjoy it,
and on the next day, and possibly
for the rest of the present year and until this time next year, be refreshed and invigorated for the humdrum business of life.

After going to the fair and looking around at the people who were there and what they did there, our conviction was that everybody was having a good time. We actually saw some people looking at the races and apparently enjoying the sight of them, although they had not placed a single bet on a single horse or indulged in a flutter on the nose of any particular pony. In the matter of enjoyment at a fair it is the spirit rather than the fact of the occasion which is the determining factor. It is the spirit of the occasion which casts a glamour over
the area which is set apart for sideshows, merry-go-rounds, whirling chariots, penny stands and hot-dog
booths, and makes even grown-up people into little children with insatiable appetites, and lures them
into indulgences which will be productive of nightmares some time
between the going down of the sun
and the rising thereof.

To get the best out of our fair
you must not go to it as a critic,
grumbling that the displays are not equal to the exhibits of yesterday.
The times and the seasons vary,
and there may be reasons attributable to the weather and to business conditions why certain departments are not so well filled as in former years. Go into the main building, look at the wonderful displays of local products there, and ask yourself why it should be necessary for anybody in this part of the world to purchase fruits or vegetables, or any of the absolute necessaries of life, imported from foreign countries. So that an inspection of that department of the fair
will not only be highly enjoyable
but extremely instructive, even educational. After the inspection you must ask yourself why it is that not only in Victoria, but probably also in every city and town in British Columbia, foreign fruits appear to be given prominence and preference
in the shops and stores.

We call attention to these things
because our annual fair, while it may have been primarily designed for enjoyment, its essential purpose is educational. In that respect it is different from the annual village fair. Everybody who can should go to the exhibition and make notes of its instructive features after they have enjoyed themselves looking at the amusement features.

Profound professors of economics
are constantly admonishing everybody that without international exchange of commodities there never could be a civilization.

can be national property. That may be sound in the abstract, but in the concrete will national or provincial prosperity be assured if we persist in buying from foreign countries products which can be grown at home, and which will be left to rot in the orchards and in the fields if we persist in giving a preference to foreign articles of commerce? In these times of depression competition for business is keen and foreign and local propaganda are active. Go to the exhibition and ponder over the lesson it teaches.

IN LITTLE

The voice of the sea I hear in a shell.
The roar of its grottoes, where mer-
maids dwell,
The sigh of its waters, its lure and
its spell.
The whole of a Summer I see in a rose.
The ardor, the beauty, the sunlight,
that flows
With such splendor and warmth
that life fountains unclose.
The songs of the spheres are mine
through a bird.
A shy, feathered creature, by faint
sophy stirred,
Yet he lifts up his voice and the angels are heard.
Of love that may come to the foot
or the wise,
Of love that ranks first in the world's mysteries—
I have learned all of love from the look in your eyes!

Tides at Victoria

Time of tides (Pacific Standard Time).
Victoria, B.C. for the month of August,

29	5:00	30	6:00	31	7:00

The time used is Pacific standard for the month of August. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for high water are given in feet above the low water.
Where blanks occur in the table, the tide
is at low water. The figures for low water are given in feet below the high water.
This height is in feet and inches or a foot, measured from the average level of low water.

To find the depth of water on the sill
of the Bonanza dyke add 20 feet to the height of high water as above given.

Zoroastrianism was the designation
generally employed to denote
the ancient religion of Persia prior to the Mohammedan conquest of Iran.

CULBERTSON on CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

PSYCHIC BIDDING WITH A PURPOSE

I recently read an article by a well-known bridge writer, in which psychic bidding was condemned as degrading to the scientific character of the game. This attitude seems to indicate that an essential point has been missed. Contract bridge is, or should be, a supreme battle of wits, and the psychic bid
is the acid test of the quality of those wits. Against opponents whose bridge mentality is first-class, the psychic bid will probably come to grief, against any other.
It is likely to succeed.
There seems, moreover, to be some misunderstanding as to the exact nature of a psychic bid. For instance, the writer of a recent article
refers to a bid of one spade on six diamonds as a psychic bid. This diamond has been bid on his right. Yet another scribe refers to a bid of three hearts on six to the king-knave-ten as a psychic, the partner having bid no trump. In both cases the hands certainly contained no other cards of value—yet
to regard such bids as these as representative psychics is absurd.

East—Dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.
No deal anything of the kind occurs to East. His position was, however, more difficult, since he had nothing in his partner's great strength in clubs and diamonds. He had, in fact, no reasonably good second bid to make, and, having regard to the card he held, this position well illustrates the beauty of psychic bids.
But, of course, the really exquisite quality of the latter is most clearly brought out by the fact that East and West were absolutely barred from bidding the game they held between them because their mentality was not of sufficient
calibre to grasp the full significance of the bidding. This was a real
"battle of wits" decided.

TODAY'S POINTER

Much has been written about so-called "psychic" bidding, which, in most instances, covers a multitude of sins. True psychological bidding is of an entirely different type and is based on a thorough understanding of the psychology of the opposing players.

TOMORROW'S HAND

The bidding and play of the hand printed below will be discussed tomorrow.

South—Dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

West opened the king of clubs,
which South ruffed. South then led the king of trumps, East covering with the ace. Another club was led.
South ruffed, cleared the trumps
(entering dummy on the fifth trick)
and played the heart finesse, thus losing only four tricks—spade, a heart and two diamonds—and making game and rubber.

How different the result had South's hand been bid in the usual straightforward manner! A glance at the opponents' hands will show that they held a "sitting" game in either diamonds, clubs or no trump.

WILD FLOWERS OF B.C. SHOWN

Interesting Additional Exhibits in Art Section at Willows Fair Noticed

One of the helpful and instructive
exhibits in the art section at the Willows Fair this year is a collection of pressed Vancouver Island and British Columbia wild flowers entered by V. E. T. Goddard.

The collection is obviously the handwork of a real botanist, and is conveniently and neatly arranged,
with clear typed labels on the covers of each specimen, and the whole
arranged in groups of sagittariae,
umbelliferae (parsley), lilaceae (lily), plantaginaceae (plantain),
carnaeae (dogwood), ericaceae (heath), and so on.

Nearby is a big collection of butterflies, the special interest of which is that it includes an unsuspected number of varieties from Vancouver Island. Among these are several from the Forbidden Plateau,
some of the cold-loving species being found on Mount Albert Edward at an altitude of 7,000 feet. Among the South American species are some examples of the Morpho Belenus used for jewelry, the best specimens commanding as high as $75.

Mr. Goddard's work will be found in the west alcove, which also contains the china and pottery exhibits. Among the latter will be found several large pieces, the work
of Mrs. M. McMoran, Miss Lethian
and Mrs. M. F. Gross, all made from Vancouver Island. Rock gardens seem to be a favorite subject
for the amateur artist.

The professional photography is shown on this floor also, and among those showing under the sign of the Associated Professional Photographers of British Columbia are Steffens, Colmer, the Knight Studio,
Michelin, Port Studio, Foxall's,
Savannah, Gibson's, Paramount
Studio, Easthope and Associated Secure Photo Co.

There is no class this year for architectural work, therefore J. C.
M. Keith's drawing of the new cathedral is shown alone at the right of the stairs, coming up.

A CURIQ

A quaint commentary on the changing fashion in what constitutes news is found in the framed display of the Glasgow Herald of Thursday, September 7, 1909. The London Letter, featured on the front page, opens with the following paragraph:
"On Sunday morning, about four o'clock, a gentleman who loured in bond street, dreaming
that a house was on fire threw himself out of a two-story of stairs
window and received so much hurt
by the fall that his life is despaired
of."

TURTLE SPRINT ENDS AS COPS CRASH GATE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 25.—The police vice squad descended on a turtle-racing course last night, arrested fifteen men on gambling
charges, and rounded up 100 turtles.
Among the founders was Tod Sloan, famous jockey of the past. Another prisoner was Louis Hirsch, asserted
head of the enterprise.
About 200 persons were present
when the officers walked onto the track at the conclusion of a somnolent "heat," and announced that the sponsors were under arrest for operating an option betting system.
The track opened last Tuesday.

VICTORIA RIDING ACADEMY

Sir,—Hailing from a land of thoroughbred and being an ardent lover of horseflesh myself, I was intensely interested in attending the opening of the Horse Show at the Willows on Tuesday evening, and will most certainly not miss any of the future performances.

It has occurred to me as a visitor,
that perhaps the residents of your city do not appreciate to the full extent the wonderful asset in their midst of a riding school such as the Victoria Riding Academy.

TIDE CHANGES IN TRADE LINE

Roy Forbes, Manager of Victor Company, Optimistic on Meeting Dealers

"Undoubtedly the change in the tide of business has taken place," says Roy A. Forbes, of Montreal, manager of the Victor Talking Machine Company, who was in the city yesterday on a tour across Canada, meeting the dealers and salesmen of these Canadian-made machines.

Mr. Forbes would not venture a definite opinion as to just what form the revival would take. He said he did not want to appear in the role of a prophet. He, however, suggested that it might come somewhat slowly on the start and, as unemployment disappeared, perhaps the recovery might be marked by a character that would be described as too rapid.

He alluded to the fact that the first to get into the buying of stocks in New York and other centres were the banks, which had come into the knowledge that industrial concerns which had been losing money were beginning to make profits. Now the general public was being drawn into the buying campaign.

MEET DEALERS HERE
Accompanied by Frank Boyle, of Vancouver, manager of the Victor Company, Mr. Forbes arrived in Victoria yesterday. Before he left he took the opportunity of meeting the dealers and the salesmen in Victoria. The meeting took the form of a dinner served in the Empress Hotel last evening, when about forty sat down.

Following this, Mr. Forbes demonstrated the latest instrument, the Victor, and gave some wholesome advice to the salesmen in the matter of pushing sales. These instruments were all made in the Montreal factory of the firm and have a very wide range as far as price is concerned.

On this trip across Canada Mr. Forbes is stressing the instrument evolved by the engineers of the company, which is the combination bi-acoustic radio and record production instrument. It is claimed for this that broadcasting is accomplished just as if the listener were hearing the music in a high-class orchestra.

PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATION
In the Empress last evening the accomplishments of this instrument were exemplified. Mr. Boyle spoke into it and also sang. The records were taken on a flexible plate which is practically indestructible, and immediately after the instrument was adjusted and repeated the address and the song as given.

These radio programmes can be repeated by this means as many times as wanted and the record can be sent away to be used elsewhere. Mr. Forbes admitted that the price of this instrument was a little high as compared with the prices that were paid for some of the older models, but he advised the dealers and salesmen that the time was at hand when these instruments would be sought after and when the price would not cut as much figure as it has.

The Victor Company, said Mr. Forbes, was here to serve the public and to give the very best that could be manufactured. The engineers of the company had done their part, and, in fact, had gone beyond the expectations of the company.

FAR FROM SATURATED
Mr. Forbes expressed the opinion that British Columbia was far from saturated as far as the radio market was concerned. While he had to leave for the East without delay, Mr. Forbes is remaining over in Victoria a little longer to render any assistance possible to the dealers.

BROTHERHOOD IS ACTIVE IN ARTS

Craftsmen of Victoria West Have Interesting Exhibit at Willows—Historic Souvenirs Shown

A community entry of much interest at the Willows fair is the art and handicraft exhibit of the Victoria West Brotherhood, which is being shown in the art section at the Manufacturers' Building. This includes a unique collection of paintings, photographs, cabinet-making, pottery and other objects, which bear splendid testimony to the part played by this organization in its capacity of a "local improvement society." This includes every kind of activity of a beneficial character from looking after the repair of sidewalks up to the encouragement of art.

All the arts and handicrafts shown are home-made products, and bear evidence of versatile talent in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Semple, two of the pioneers in the movement, between them have entered a big display of oil paintings, copies of works by well known artists, and fine needlework. A crazy quilt by Mrs. J. Dodds, a table of needlework by Mrs. A. Colby and Mrs. L. G. Crombach, several paintings by Mrs. Nora Jones, a sea wagon made by Ray Casson (a thirteen-year-old boy), Mr. Semple's cross-section models of launches and a Norwegian "power-gram," are among some of the members' work.

HISTORICAL SOUVENIRS

There are a number of interesting historical souvenirs in the collection also, including a Queen Anne period crystal-headed silver mustard spoon, a wine glass 130 years old, an ancient Aladdin lamp, and a curiously dappled, enormous, pink cup presented to Mrs. Casson in 1894 by Sir James Douglas.

In a cabinet of quaint oddments is a model of the Bahama Bank lightship made in 1876 by B. Temple. This lightship was stationed at Seven Stones from 1842 to 1856, when it was moved to Bahama Bank quicksand, near Ramsey, Isle of Man. Here it remained until 1876, when it was replaced by a modern iron ship equipped with steam siren and foghorn. The model of the earlier lightship is, therefore, interesting. Mrs. G. E. Warner has in the same section an old seventeenth century flintlock gun with bayonet made by King.

ASKING UNIFORM GASOLINE PRICE

Move of Oil Companies to Reduce Margin of Profit of Retailer Is Opposed

VANCOUVER, Aug. 25.—Oil companies have decided to reduce the margin of profit for the gasoline retailer from four to three cents, in order to establish a uniform price of thirty-one cents to the motorist.

The gasoline committee of the Retail Merchants' Association has concluded that it is utterly futile to try to operate on a smaller margin and has called a mass meeting of all service station proprietors throughout Vancouver for Friday evening in Moose Hall.

Announcement to this effect is made by George R. Matthews, provincial secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association.

Gasoline dealers are unanimous, he reports, in the belief that if the experiences of the oil companies will justify a reduction in the retail price of gasoline, a drop would be in the best interests of both motorists and the service station operators.

R. H. McEWAN PASSES

Robert Henry McEwan passed away yesterday at his residence, 816 Talmie Avenue, aged seventy-four. Mr. McEwan was born in Carlton Place, Ontario, and came to Victoria eleven years ago from Fernie, B.C. He is survived by his widow and one son, Robert G. McEwan, 430 Boleyn Road. Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the parlors of the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home, Rev. W. F. Burns, of Duncan, officiating and interment will be made in the family plot at Royal Oak Burial Park.

BOULEVARD TREES TO BE REPLACED

Chamber of Commerce Delegation Reassured by Parks Committee of Council

The delegation from the Chamber of Commerce, which waited upon the parks committee of the City Council at its meeting yesterday, was assured that the council had the interests of the city at heart and was protecting the beauties of Victoria to the fullest extent.

The delegation waited upon the committee to ascertain what was being done in connection with the removal of boulevard trees. It was explained by members of the committee that in certain areas where trees had grown too large, every alternate tree would be cut out, but would be replaced. This weeding-out process was to be carried out to remove the danger to sewer and water mains, which were being broken by the roots of trees.

The delegation left, satisfied that everything was being done to protect the citizens' interest and was assured that its suggestion that shade trees be planted in the place of the larger ones taken out would be adopted.

EDMONTON BARRISTER DIES

EDMONTON, Aug. 25.—A prominent member of the Alberta bar and one of Edmonton's leading criminal lawyers during thirty years' practice before leaving this city to settle in California, Harry H. Robertson, K.C., aged sixty-four, died in San Diego Wednesday night.

PAID LAST RESPECTS

Yesterday afternoon Rev. T. E. Rowe conducted the funeral service for Mrs. Mary Nelson. The service was conducted privately, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. Two hymns were sung, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "While the Light is Still Shining." The many beautiful floral offerings received covered casket and hearse. Interment was made at Royal Oak Burial Park, with the following pallbearers: Dr. Alexander Robinson, Robert Garvin, R. Randolph Stewart, W. Walker, W. Moore and Edwin Tooley.

LAST TRIBUTE PAID

The funeral of John Edward Davis Mitchell, who passed away on August 20, was held on Wednesday afternoon in the presence of relatives and hundreds of friends at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The casket, hearse and flower car were covered with many beautiful tributes. Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell and Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson conducted the service, during which the Psalm, "The Lord is My Shepherd," and "Abide With Me," were rendered. The remains were laid at rest in Ross Bay Cemetery, with Rev. Stevenson Baynes, of Vancouver, a personal friend of the deceased, assisting in the prayers. The pallbearers were Aubrey Squire, Allen Anderson, Bob Gormall, Ed Sturrock, Ted Cassidy and Chris McRae.

POULTRY ENTRY BEST IN YEARS

Many Fine Birds on Exhibition at the Fair Grounds—Prize List

Poultry fanciers were given an additional treat at the Willows Exhibition by the exhibits of poultry which, for quality, are the best ever shown in any annual fair in Victoria. There was a wide variety of birds and they were so uniform in judging characteristics that officials in charge of the judging found some difficulty in determining the winners in many classes.

With the prospect of additional export in eggs to British Dominions and the British markets brought about by the Imperial Economic Conference just concluded at Ottawa poultrymen all over the province, and particularly on Vancouver Island, are likely to pay more attention to this department of farming than heretofore. The entries at the exhibition indicate that Victoria district can produce a high standard of poultry from which beginners may start their flocks.

NOTED IN ENTRIES

Among the prominent entries were those of J. Sarlat, with Leghorns, Buffs, Polish, white crested blacks, Hamburgs, silver spangled, and Houdans. J. J. Harris was a big winner in a large number of classes. Mrs. M. Price was a strong winner in Rhode Island Reds and Andalusians. E. and M. Barnes, James Greig, H. F. Williams, A. C. T. Stock Farm, J. A. Stewart, R. S. Anderson, J. P. Hanna, Mrs. P. Nix, A. A. Adams, George Adams were among the winners.

The following is the list of prizes given out yesterday by the B.C. Agricultural Association:

Popular Vegetable Is Rich in Vitamins

If there is anything more inviting than a cob of well-ripened corn, cooked just right and eaten with fresh butter and salt, no one has yet produced it. But aside altogether from its other attractions, corn on the cob is a very nourishing and healthful meal in itself. Like most grains, the kernels of the corn are rich in vitamins A and B, provide liberal quantities of sugar and starch and important amounts of phosphorus and body-building proteins.

Cooking corn on the cob is a simple process, but there are certain small points to be remembered if it is to be just right. First of all, be sure to leave the husks on until just before putting into the pot, as this preserves the freshness. Above all, don't cook it too long. From ten to twelve minutes should be ample.

There are many other ways of serving corn, all of them attractive. Corn chowder, corn omelettes and soups are a few suggestions. Your cook book will give you many more.

Here is one recipe that is easy to follow and is sure to prove a big favorite whenever it is served. It is called corn oyster, and is made this way:

Prepare a cup of corn by shelling the kernels with a sharp knife. To the pulp add just right and eaten with fresh butter and salt, no one has yet produced it. But aside altogether from its other attractions, corn on the cob is a very nourishing and healthful meal in itself. Prepare a cup of corn by shelling the kernels with a sharp knife. To the pulp add just right and eaten with fresh butter and salt, no one has yet produced it. But aside altogether from its other attractions, corn on the cob is a very nourishing and healthful meal in itself. Like most grains, the kernels of the corn are rich in vitamins A and B, provide liberal quantities of sugar and starch and important amounts of phosphorus and body-building proteins.

Cooking corn on the cob is a simple process, but there are certain small points to be remembered if it is to be just right. First of all, be sure to leave the husks on until just before putting into the pot, as this preserves the freshness. Above all, don't cook it too long. From ten to twelve minutes should be ample.

There are many other ways of serving corn, all of them attractive. Corn chowder, corn omelettes and soups are a few suggestions. Your cook book will give you many more.

Here is one recipe that is easy to follow and is sure to prove a big favorite whenever it is served. It is called corn oyster, and is made this way:

PARIS STYLES

By MARY KNIGHT

United Press Staff Correspondent.

PARIS.—The Princess Dora Ruspoli of Rome, who spends much of her time in Switzerland, has selected a sport suit of heavy linen from Schiaparelli to take with her to St. Moritz. It is of heavy white herringbone and can be worn with or without a short blouse of periwinkle blue. A jacket goes with it of black and white mixed herringbone, and the whole thing is about one of the smartest outfits that ever came down the fashion pike.

The linen evening gowns, in soft blue, yellow or deep coral pink that are clever and graceful adaptations of garden aprons, are making their way in the world of feminine styles with the knack of the natural born genius. They are sufficiently formal for most summer dinner parties which makes them a boon to any woman's wardrobe.

A tourist party of ladies were obliged to seek quarters in a farm house, where everything was simplicity itself, and also scrupulously clean and homelike. When bedtime came some of the party, finding there were no keys in the locks of their rooms, consulted the farmer's wife, who was undisguisedly surprised. "Why," she said, "we don't usually lock our doors here, and there's no one here but you! But then," she added, scrutinizing the ladies carefully, "I suppose you know your own party best!"

Mrs. Tom Lang left last Saturday for Victoria, where she is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ridewood.

Control of Civil Aviation Through Geneva Dangerous

Air Transport Expert Protests That British Imperial Air Routes Would Be Principally Affected—Necessary to Empire Expansion

Handley Page has expressed the views of many air transport experts in an interview with him that was published in The London Observer recently. He spoke of the danger that the proposed international control of civil aviation, foreshadowed in the discussions of the Disarmament Conference at Geneva, may seriously hamper and, even, harm irreparably the development of British imperial air routes.

Already something like twelve international organizations, attended by a multitude of committees and subcommittees, exercise rights of control over civil flying. The number is sufficient to strangle any undertaking, and only the inherent vitality of aviation keeps it alive and progressing. But the suggested new international control, in its most severe form meaning the formation of an international pool of aircraft, pilots, mechanics, capital and all, in the less drastic form embodied in the draft resolution of the conference "full publicity" on all air transport machines and international control of those aircraft which do not meet unspecified limitations, goes far beyond any of its predecessors.

"We are to deposit all the drawings of our new machines with an international body," said Handley Page, "and thus give away to our foreign commercial competitors the secrets of new British civil aircraft; a sphere of aeronautical development in which this country holds an acknowledged lead? Apparently the designs of all civil aircraft will have to be submitted to this committee, and those machines which they consider potentially dangerous weapons of war will be subjected to an international regime, the precise nature of which is not at present disclosed.

"At the best, such procedure will cause great delay in the design, construction and commissioning of new and more efficient types of aircraft, and at the worst interested parties will be able to hamper considerably any progress which they think inimical to them."

"What interest, then, such an international body have in the development of our Imperial air routes? Our main trunk lines through the Empire to India and Australia, to South Africa, and later on to Canada, are essential to the development of Empire commerce and the provision of adequate Empire defence and patrol. Under international control we are bound to surrender more than any other nation, simply because our interests are bigger and wider."

Space forbids further quotation from Handley Page's illuminating remarks. Air enthusiasts await a satisfactory answer from Geneva.

EXPORTS OF WHEAT OUT OF VANCOUVER SAME AS LAST YEAR

VANCOUVER, Aug. 25 (CP).—Wheat exports are remaining about equal with those of a year ago, according to Vancouver Merchants' Exchange weekly grain report.

The movement to 8 o'clock Wednesday morning is slightly higher than last year's, the figures being 2,458,884 this year as compared with 2,206,843 in 1931. During the past week a total of 478,208 bushels was loaded and dispatched.

There are ships in port to load 995,067 bushels, and balance of August bookings are 1,428,000. September bookings, as yet incomplete, total 2,338,666 bushels. It is reported on the exchange that 25,000 tons of wheat was sold, September 10, and more was placed Wednesday.

Elevator stocks are 8,677,356 bushels, with 486,000 bushels on cars in terminals and 587,000 bushels on cars en route West on lines in the province.

Empress Taking Large Number of Passengers Out

THE largest passenger list to cross the Pacific Ocean in two years on any Canadian Pacific liner will be aboard the Ss. Empress of Canada this trip. The liner leaves Victoria tomorrow afternoon for the Philippine Islands via Hawaii, Japan and China ports. The Canada is due to sail from here at 6 o'clock and will have 510 travelers in all classes aboard. At Honolulu 490 additional passengers will be embarked, while 107 will leave the liner there. The increase in the business from Honolulu to the Orient is attributed to the moderating of the extremely hot weather in China and Japan, while present Honolulu is experiencing midsummer heat.

Airplanes Demolished in Hurricane

SOME idea of the destruction caused by the recent hurricane that swept the Gulf Coast of Texas, can be obtained from the above picture, which shows the wreckage of an immense hangar at the Houston, Texas, airport, demolished by the force of the storm. Ten planes valued at $100,000 were destroyed. More than thirty deaths resulted from the gale, and damage estimates run into millions.

SCHEDULES REARRANGED

Changes in Sailing Hours of B.C. Coast Service Ships Effective Shortly

New Fall schedules issued yesterday by the B.C. Coast Service of the Canadian Pacific Steamships reveal important changes in the travel service, Gulf Islands service, West Coast of Vancouver Island, Nanaimo-Vancouver run and the Alaska service.

The Fall schedule on the Victoria-Vancouver-Seattle route becomes effective September 6, the Ss. Princess Margaret and the Ss. Princess Kathleen continuing the double daily service.

The Princess Kathleen will arrive here from Seattle at 1:15 o'clock in the afternoon; and leave for Vancouver at 2 o'clock.

From Vancouver, the Princess Margaret will dock at 3 o'clock, and leave for Seattle at 4:30 o'clock each afternoon.

Effective September 5 there will be no 7:30 o'clock sailing from Vancouver for Seattle via Victoria, and after 1 o'clock on the morning of September 6 there will be no night sailing from here to Seattle.

SAME NIGHT SERVICE

There will be no change in the Victoria-Vancouver night boat service, the Ss. Princess Joan and the Ss. Princess Elizabeth continuing to leave Victoria and Vancouver at 11 o'clock each morning.

Effective September 6, the Ss. Princess Victoria will be withdrawn from the Nanaimo-Vancouver service and the Fall schedule will be carried out by the Princess Elaine, Princess Joan and Princess Elizabeth.

Labor Day specials of the B.C. Coast Service include a bargain excursion from Vancouver to Victoria, September 5, on the Ss. Princess Alice, a stop being made at Ganges Harbor; a bargain excursion from Victoria to Vancouver, and an afternoon cruise from Victoria by the Ss. Princess Joan, the ship making a complete circuit of Salt Spring Island.

The Ss. Princess Patricia will be withdrawn from the Gulf Islands service for the season on August 29. Ferry service by the M. Motor Princess from Sidney to Stevenson will be discontinued after September 6.

The service from Victoria to points on the West Coast of Vancouver Island for the Fall season will be carried out by the Ss. Princess Norah, leaving Victoria at midnight, September 1, and 11 o'clock on the nights of September 11 and 21, and by the Ss. Princess Maquinna, leaving Victoria at 11 o'clock on the nights of October 1, 11 and 21.

Full sailings for Alaska by the Princess Louise from Vancouver will be as follows: September 6, 15 and 27; October 6, 18 and 27, all at 9 o'clock in the evening. The Alice will call at Alert Bay, Prince Rupert, Ketchikan, Wrangell, Juneau and Skagway.

INCREASE SAILINGS

Pacific Steamship Company Doubles Service Between Victoria and Frisco

Every day after August 30 will be bargain day as far as the sale of transportation on Pacific Steamship Company vessels operating between Victoria and California ports applies. These bargain rates will be inaugurated with the sailing of the coastwise flyer, Ss. H. F. Alexander, on Tuesday night next, according to an announcement made yesterday by W. M. Allan, local representative of the company.

In addition to the drastic reduction in steamship fares for the coming months, the company is also going to provide a much-improved service, which should prove of considerable benefit to this port. Besides the regular sailings of the popular vessels, Ss. Emma Alexander and the Ss. Ruth Alexander, running Tuesday nights and departing Sunday mornings, the Ss. Dorothy Alexander and the Ss. Admiral Watson, which have been running on the Alaska excursion route all summer, will call here alternately every Thursday morning during the winter on the way south from Seattle. They will dock at 7 o'clock and get away at 9 o'clock, two hours later.

The Dorothy Alexander will also call here on the northbound trip from California every Monday night, remaining at the local dock for several hours. The Admiral Watson will not call on the northbound trip.

WYOMING TO TAKE WHEAT

French Ship Will Load Parcel at Local Elevator for France

Marking a new departure for French Line ships calling here, when the Ss. Wyoming, Captain L. David, due at Ogden Point Piers at 7 o'clock this morning, lies up it will be alongside the grain elevator where she will load a parcel of wheat for the return voyage to France, according to an announcement made by King Brothers, local representatives of the line, yesterday afternoon.

The Wyoming, combined passenger liner and freight carrier, will be here all day, and will probably shift to Mainland ports this evening. The ship has thirty-five California tourists aboard, who will have all day to see what Victoria has to offer in a scenic way. On her arrival at Vancouver, the majority of them will leave the ship and motor south, having brought their cars along.

Included in the ship's passenger list are M. de Bellefont, French Consul-General at San Francisco, and Gilbert Macquarrie, who will succeed Captain Alliet as general manager for the Pacific Coast. F. C. Garde, manager of the Empire Shipping Company, Vancouver, British Columbia agents for the French Line, arrived last night to meet the Wyoming on her arrival here this morning.

The Wyoming is the third ship of the French Line to call here recently. She has cabin accommodation for forty cabin class passengers, and carries a doctor, stewardess, purser, baggage master and a fully-equipped barber shop for the convenience of the passengers. The public is welcome to inspect the accommodations of the ship from 10 o'clock until sailing time.

Chicago Cubs Down Dodgers in Third Of Crucial Series

Grimm's Machine Increases Lead in National League to Five and a Half Games by Victory Over Brooklyn—Yanks and Athletics Win

NATIONAL LEAGUE
CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—The Cubs did it again today. They smashed the Brooklyn Dodgers down into a 9 to 3 defeat and just about tucked the National League pennant away in their pockets so far as Brooklyn's challenge for the flag is concerned.

The victory, Chicago's second in the "crucial" three-game series, gave the Cubs a lead of five and a half games and served to emphasize a little more their championship claims.

Guy Bush went the route for the Cubs, having only one bad inning and allowing only seven hits, while the Chicagoans hammered four Dodger batters for thirteen blows, clustering them in two big innings to score all their runs.

Chicago..... 9 13 0
Brooklyn..... 3 7 1
Batteries: Clark, Phipps, Quinn, Thomas and Lopez; Pienich; Bush and Hartnett.

PHILADELPHIA TAKE PAIR
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 25.—The fighting Phils made the Pirate brig look like the wreck of the Hesperus today, grabbing both ends of a double-header 11 to 3 and 6 to 5, to set up a record of seven consecutive wins over the Bucs.

The first game was a walkover for Philadelphia, Maine, Spencer and Brame being flogged for thirteen hits, while Hansen held Pittsburgh to eight.

It took the visitors ten innings to win the second game.

First game—

Pittsburgh..... 5 13 1
Batteries: Bengt, Elliot and V. Davis; Harris, Spencer, French and Grace.

GIANTS BEAT CARDS
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—Adolf Lutz's relief pitching and some lusty Giant clouting gave New York a 6 to 5 victory over the Cardinals today and evened the series.

Luz pitched steadily all after Jim Mooney was driven to cover in the fifth while the Giants pounded Bill Hallahan for eleven hits in five frames and continued against Derringer and Carleton for a total of seventeen. Eddie Marshall led with three singles and a double.

Pepper Martin hit a homer with one on in the fourth to tie the score.
R. H. E.
New York..... 6 17 0
St. Louis..... 5 13 2
Batteries: Mooney, Lutz and Hogan; Hallahan, Derringer, Carleton and Wilson.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—New York's home run twins, Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, overpowered Cleveland's one four-base swatter, Earl Averil, today and gave the Yankees a 4 to 3 victory.

Home runs were the most important blows from start to finish of a brilliant pitching argument between "Lefty" Vernon Gomez and Oral Hildebrand, and Gehrig's twenty-eighth homer finally decided the scrap with none out in the ninth.

A short time before, Averil's twenty-eighth homer had knotted the count in the eighth inning. A single by Porter, a triple by Bruce Connaster and Lynn Lay's error gave the Indians their first two tallies of the inning and put them back into the running after Ruth's thirty-sixth circuit drive, coming with Coombs on base in the sixth, apparently had settled the argument.

The only other Yankee run came as the result of a walk to Ruth, Gehrig's single and Lazzari's long fly in the fourth.

Gomez won his twenty-first victory of the year.
R. H. E.
Cleveland..... 3 10 1
New York..... 4 6 2
Batteries: Hildebrand and L. Sewell; Gomez and Dickey.

SENIORS MOVE UP
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Hammering three pitchers for sixteen hits, Washington earned an 8 to 3 victory over Detroit today and forged into third place in the American League as Cleveland lost to the Yanks.

Whitey Wyatt, who started for the visitors, was thumped for five hits and four runs in the second. Morrow, who replaced him, fared little better. The veteran George Uhle, who took the mound in the seventh, was greeted with four singles, which netted two runs.

R. H. E.
Detroit..... 5 12 1
Washington..... 8 16 1
Batteries: Wyatt, Morrow, Uhle and Hayworth; Marberry and Spencer.

RED SOX WIN
BOSTON, Aug. 25.—The Red Sox took the second game of the series from Chicago, 5 to 4, today. Benny Tate, formerly of the White Sox, and Dale Alexander furnishing the principal offense.

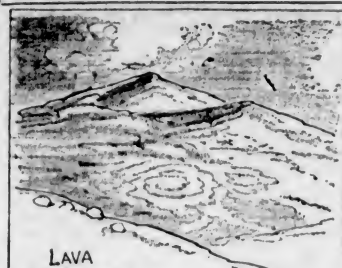

Tate hit a home run in the third inning, off Ivey Fraser, with one man on base, while Alexander contributed three of the Red Sox eight hits.

Four Divisions Will Swing Into Action In Opening Rounds

Leeds United and Wolverhampton Wanderers New First Division Clubs—Hines Will Strengthen Huddersfield—Everton Line-Up Unchanged

LONDON, Aug. 25 (CP).—In quest of soccer honors, eighty-four of the four divisions of the English Football League play their initial games of the 1932-33 season Saturday. Probabilities indicate the inaugural fixtures will be fought out in ideal football weather, but the vagaries of the English climate may quite easily provide the customary heat wave in which football usually makes its bow.

The First Division welcomes the reappearance of Leeds United and Wolverhampton Wanderers, famous old soccer teams who won promotion while Grimsby Town and West Ham United take their places in the Second Division.

Lincoln City and Fulham return to Second Division warfare, replacing Barnsley, relegated to the Northern Section of the Third Division, and Bristol City, who were relegated to the Southern Section.

Other changes have been made in the complexion of the Third Division on account of the resignation of Wigan Borough from the Northern Section. The Lancashire team's place is taken by Mansfield Town, transferred from the Southern Section, the quota of which is filled by the inclusion of Aldershot, well known on account of its good record in the English Cup competition in recent years.

The league champions, Everton, are relying on last year's players, who started football fandom with their goal-scoring feats. Newcastle United is optimistic of following up last year's cup triumph.

The cup holders have a young, virile side whose experiences last season should send them in good stead, and the opinion is freely expressed that they will form one of the leading clubs of the forthcoming season.

Huddersfield Stronger
Huddersfield's chief weakness, lack of punch near goal, has been remedied by the acquisition of Hine, Leicester's international forward, and the team is expected to make a bold bid for the championship.

West Bromwich Albion present another threat, the club being fortunate in having the same team at its disposal as last year.

It is expected that London clubs, with the acquisition of many new players, will offer stern challenge for the supremacy hitherto enjoyed by the Midlands and the North.

Arsenal, last year's runners-up for both the league championship and the cup, is continuing its splendid policy and has made elaborate preparations for the season. Turf has been relaid and new grandstands extensions have been made to the ground which is capable of accommodating 80,000. All the younger players of the team have shown promising form in practice, notably R. Stockhill, who has been allotted the task of leading London's wonder team at centre forward.

INTERESTING SCHEDULE
GLASGOW, Aug. 25 (CP).—While the English football season opens Saturday, Scottish footballers, with several games tucked away since the season opened on August 13, are approaching their best form, many interesting battles are scheduled for the coming week-end.

St. Mirren have a golden opportunity to maintain their place at the head of the league in their game with Hearts, but the Edinburgh players have lost only one match and will be sure to put up a stern struggle. St. Mirren so far are unbeaten.

Strangleholds in Fifth and Last Rounds Give Japanese Mat Decision

ERNIE ARTHUR PINS SHARMAN

Using the stranglehold in the fifth and sixth rounds during jiu jitsu methods, Testara Higami, Japanese middleweight, defeated Joe Parelli, Italy, in the main event on last night's mixed wrestling bout at the Tillamook gymnasium before a large crowd.

Ernie Arthur, Victoria, won the three minutes and forty seconds after the third round opened, Parelli used a strong body press to gain the first fall. After this the wrestlers turned to jiu jitsu methods, and Higami evened matters after one minute of the fifth round with a stranglehold and then used the same hold to win the decision in the last round.

The Arthur-Sharman mix stole the show, for both wrestlers went at it at a fast pace and failed to let up until the end. Sharman had the edge in the opening rounds, but Arthur rallied and had the margin in the third and fourth. The airplane spin and body press near the end of the fifth gave Arthur the verdict.

Joe Parelli and Higami set a fast pace during the opening two rounds and gave the fans plenty of action. ## Letters to Editor

LOWER ISLAND FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION
Sir,—In a report of a meeting of the Lower Island Football Association which appears in today's morning press, it is stated that officials and members of the above body resigned owing to dissatisfaction with the actions of its local B.C.F.A. delegates. That is not so.

The facts are as follows: The affairs of the Victoria and District League having been wound up owing to the majority of its members entering another organization, it was in order to wind up the affairs of the Lower Island Football Association. This having been done, the members of the L.I.F.A. as a matter of form resigned.

The so-called commissioners appointed at a meeting held Monday evening have nothing to do with the L.I.F.A. If they wish to organize another body of a similar nature, in affiliation with the B.C.F.A., that is their business.

On behalf of the former members of the L.I.F.A. I tender apologies to Mr. A. Marshall, local B.C.F.A. delegate, for the error, which through some misunderstanding crept into the press report.

J. R. JONES, Secretary, L.I.F.A.

An American passing through an English village stopped to talk to a farmer.

"Do you get much rain here?" he asked.

"The farmer shook his head."

"A little, but not much," he said. "My neighbor over there gets more than me."

"The American seemed puzzled."

"Well, I sure don't see that, sir," he remarked. "Why your neighbor only about a hundred yards away."

"Yes," said the farmer, "but he has more land than I have."

CAFEMEN WILL MEET ELKS IN SECOND GAME

Local Ball Clubs Clash This Evening in Senior League Play-Offs at 6 o'Clock

With Doc Webster going to the hillcock, Manager Walter Lorimer and his Elks ball squad, last year's pennant winners, are confident of deadlocking the preliminary series in the Senior Amateur Baseball League this evening when they stack up against Green Mill in the second of the three out of five games play-off to see which nine will battle the Sons of Canada for the flag. The fixture will get under way at 6 o'clock with umpires Bob Whyte and Bobby Ross in charge.

Leo Holden, who hurled the cafe squad to its first win on Monday against the antlered herd, is expected to go to the mound again this evening after a four-day rest. Holden brought Green Mill through by a 7-5 score after a free-bitting, five-inning tussle. If the cafe men's right-handed ace weakens, Manager Newman has Bill Brousseau and Bill Holmes on the reserve pitching list.

Brousseau has been holding down shortstop lately in place of "Red" Bannison, who was injured some time ago and is unable to don a uniform.

Tommy Bowden will complete the Elks' battery and Bill Bridgwood will be Holden's teammate. Green Mill's probable starting line-up follows: Dunc or Steele, first base; Love, second; Brousseau, shortstop; Nex, third; Thomas, right field; Fader, centre; Slickney, left field. Elks' lineup: Belcher, first base; McConnell, second base; McKenzie, short; Morgan, third; Forbes, left field; Pollard, centre field; Minnis, right field.

NOMADS RAID PIPE LINES
Bedouins continue to make life difficult for those who are building the Great Mosul pipe line which is to bring oil from the Mesopotamian petroleum field to the sea at the ports of Tripoli and Haifa, a distance of 1,000 miles. Not long ago desert marauders carried off sixty workmen and filled in with earth the ditches which had been dug between Deir el Zor and El Kurkistan. Work on the line was begun early this year and the Transjordan authorities began the task of recruiting 30,000 Bedouins to guard the line. It was believed that this elaborate system of recruiting among the desert folk would insure the safety of the workers and the line, but it seems to have incited some of the nomads to acts of violence.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

EPSOM SALTS

When your liver is not working properly it can cause so much general disability that you feel "hair sick" all over the body, tired, gas pains, and a feeling of depression. Fortunately some time in the long ago it was discovered that what was helpful in a great many cases with these symptoms was a dose of Epsom salts.

The idea of giving Epsom salts was that it was such a strong purgative that it cleared out all the wastes in the large intestine. This in itself was worth much to the system, because Dr. Alvarez has shown that when the large intestine is too full of wastes it causes a tired or depressed feeling in the body aside from the absorption of some of this waste matter into the blood.

Another thing about the Epsom salts is that it drains a lot of water out of the body and in this water are poisons in solution. By removing acids and furnishing alkalies to the system, the Epsom salts are also helpful.

However, it is only in emergencies that the Epsom salts should be used—when liver, gall bladder and intestines are sluggish. Epsom salts taken regularly in large doses will prevent storage of bile in the gall bladder, will make the liver pour out bile too rapidly, and will thin the blood by taking out much of its richness in food value, thereby causing anaemia. It is only an "emergency remedy."

This research men have been able to make use of Epsom salts in the investigation of the liver and gall bladder. What is known as Lyon's test consists in putting Epsom salts down a tube which goes down through the stomach into the first part of the small intestine, into which the bile flows from the liver and gall bladder. The Epsom salts cause the gall bladder to empty itself.

After five minutes specimens of the bile are withdrawn through the tube.

The first sample that is withdrawn should be of a transparent, golden yellow color, and comes from the ducts or tubes leading from liver and gall bladder. The second specimen is darker, thicker and consists of gall bladder bile. The third is thin and watery, coming directly from the liver itself.

By examining the bile coming from these three parts—ducts, gall bladder and liver—the condition of these various parts can be learned.

Remember, Epsom salts is an excellent remedy for emergencies, but not for regular or daily use.

Far worse it is to lose than never to have tasted bliss—Quarini.

LANGFORD TROOP

An interesting investiture ceremony took place on Tuesday evening around a camp fire on Captain D. B. F. Bullen's property, when Captain R. J. Wagner was invested and received his warrant as scoutmaster of the First Langford Troop Boy Scouts. Troop Leader Howard Smedley and Patrol Leader Tom Dixon assisted with the flag.

Captain D. B. F. Bullen was also invested as cub master of the First Langford Wolf Cubs, an interesting feature being that he was supported by his four sons, two of whom are Cubs and two Scouts.

The ceremony was performed by Major Wise, assistant district commissioner.

A happy evening was spent by parents of the boys, and Cubs and Scouts assembled around the fire with camp fire songs and stories. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bullen and friends.

ST. PAUL'S CAMP

The St. Paul's Scouts held their troop camp from August 11 to August 19 at East Sooke.

The troop went out under A.S.M. Walter Putt, with Ernie Mills as troop leader, Don Walker and Jack Robinson as patrol leaders, and A. Robinson and W. E. A. Barclay as camp supervisors.

A variety of weather was experienced by the campers, giving them opportunity to gain instruction in camp lore under all conditions. Besides the regular routine work, an excellent programme of instructive hikes, camp gadgets, Scout games, tests and swimming was carried out under A.S.M. Putt. Keen patrol competition added to the enthusiasm of the tests. The patrol under Jack Robinson won the prize for the all around efficiency contest.

Many visitors were welcomed during the week, and all voiced their praise of the camp.

The cooks, under A. L. Robinson, were justly proud of their cook-tent, which was a model of shining neatness, and much admired by the visiting ladies.

A popular feature was the night-light camp fire when each boy or group of boys had to do his turn. The singing was led by Mr. Robinson, and the evening ended with cocoa and cake, while the originator of the now celebrated stories of the ghost-catching detectives "Shooteem and Missem" clothed the flames and smoke of the fire with pictures of the desperate activities of these two fearless ghost chasers. So popular were these camp fires that on one occasion the whole crowd, thirty in number, of visitors from Glenora came over to join the fire. Many of these visitors were from Victoria, Vancouver and the United States, and went away with a splendid impression of the troop and its camp. This is the first time the troop has been under canvas as a separate unit, and the splendid spirit of comradeship developed by the boys will give them a good foundation with which to renew their scouting activities in September.

WORKED HARD FOR CAMP

Much of the success of the camp is due to the untiring work of Messrs. Robinson, Barclay and Eric Walker, and it is hoped that all parents who visited the camp and saw what was being done for and with their boys will give their full support to the St. Paul's Scout committee.

The spiritual side of the camp was well looked after by Mr. Barclay, with chats around the camp fire and a drum-head service on Sunday.

The Peninsula of Yucatan is approximately 400 miles long and 200 miles wide.

What Today Means

"VIRGO"

If August 26 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 9 a.m. to 10:15 a.m., from 1 p.m. to 2:40 p.m., and from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 11:30 a.m. to 12:35 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

A "don't care" spirit will be engendered by planetary conditions on August 26. It would be well to remember that life is like a game of ball, it is the slips that catch us, and try not to abandon all caution and care. Not a fortunate period for new businesses which should receive every attention. The child born on this August 26 will have two separate natures to present to the world. The one is charming and admirable; the other is moody and discourteous. It will have a good intellect, but may never make constructive use of it. Its physical requirements and upbuilding should not be neglected.

You must fight against being taken in by appearances, if born August 26—it is not the shorts that make the long distance runner. You need to increase your ability to judge human nature rightly; it will help you in all capacities of life. Your enthusiasms of today may be your aversions of tomorrow. There are times when you get bored with yourself and your nearest associates, and it would be difficult for anyone to place themselves in harmony with your adverse mood.

You will usually have many things in hand at the same time. "Between two stools," you will often come to the ground, but will eventually achieve no inferior position in life. Disappointment and tardiness in love affairs is shown. Two marriages, or one legal wife or husband, and a second attachment, are indicated. You are a persuasive talker when you are interested, and at other times you are painfully "dumb." You are very confident where you give your affection or trust, and it is always necessary for you to have some sympathetic ear to which you can run with your secret thoughts.

Gerard Terborch was one of the most eminent genre and portrait painters of the Dutch school.

"A HAIR'S BREADTH"

We are so accustomed to hearing and using this expression to describe something that occurs by the very narrowest margin, as a "hair's breadth escape" that we do not stop to think of the uniqueness of the words.

The term has its origin in the "Meditations" of Marcus Aurelius, dating from the second century. Subsequently it found its way into the literature of various periods. And Shakespeare, to whose remarkable mill of language all things were grist, was the first to speak of a "hair's breadth escape." We find this in "Othello," Act I, Scene III:

"Her father loved me; oft invited me; Still questioned me the story of my life,

From year to year, the battles, sieges, fortunes, That I have passed. I ran it through, even from my boyish days,

To the very moment that he bade me tell it. Wherein I spoke of most disastrous chances,
